JENNIFER E. JOHNSEN NAMED TO DIVERSITY LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE, 2009 CLASS

Greenville, SC – The law firm of Gallivan, White & Boyd, P.A. announced the acceptance of Jennifer E. Johnsen as a member of the Riley Institute's Diversity Leadership Initiative Class of 2009.

The Riley Institute's Diversity Leadership Initiative (DLI) participants hold leadership positions in business, government, and community organizations. Classes are shaped to reflect the diverse demographic characteristics of South Carolina.

Johnsen is a Shareholder with Gallivan, White & Boyd, P.A., where she practices in the areas of business and commercial litigation, ERISA benefits and insurance coverage litigation. In addition to her law practice, Johnsen is a member of the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel, the Defense Research Institute's Commercial Litigation and Life, Health and Disability Committees, and the South Carolina Defense Trial Attorneys Association. In addition, she has an extensive record of community service. She is a Past President of the Greenville County Bar Association, and a graduate of Leadership Greenville, Class 29. In 2001, Johnsen was chosen as one of Greenville

Magazine's Best & Brightest 35 and Under. She currently serves on the Campaign Cabinet of the United Way of Greenville County, and is on the Board of the Greenville County Museum of Art.

Johnsen received her A.B. from Mount Holyoke College in 1987 and her JD from Suffolk University School of Law in 1990. Johnsen is a member of the Greenville Bar, South Carolina Bar and Federal Bar Associations. She is licensed to practice in South Carolina, Massachusetts and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.
